Conference session

Conference sessions at the KAAN conference include a wide array of topics related to the adoptee experience, the adoptive family experience, and other systemic contributors. We feature a variety of accomplished scholars, practitioners, grassroots activists, allies, and creative professionals from across the nation that speak at the conference. KAAN has felt it is important to provide travel reimbursement, and stipends to our speakers as acknowledgement of our appreciation of their time, talents, and sharing of their story. Too often adoptees and adoptive families are asked to share their experiences and stories in ways that are exploitive. By providing financial assistance, KAAN hopes to not repeat those patterns.

Keynote/mainstage speaker

The KAAN Conference has strived to promote the works of adoptees and the adoptee experience by featuring them as keynote speakers. As with the conference sessions, KAAN provides financial assistance for the keynote speakers as an acknowledgement of their contribution of time, talent, experience and stories.

Youth Program

KAAN partners with Sejong Cultural Education Inc. to provide a robust youth program during the conference. This program is geared toward youth 8-17 years old. Staff from Sejong Camp provide cultural activities, facilitated discussions about adoption and ethnic identity, and also supervise an off-site field trip. The Youth Program is an integral part of the conference as it allows youth to create relationships with other adoptees, and children of adoptees.

ASL (American Sign Language) Program

As part of our mission, KAAN has worked to be inclusive of adoptees of all experiences and abilities. KAAN has provided ASL interpreter services since 2017. Since then, the program has grown to include an ASL coordinator and several interpreters. The interpreters provide individual services for attendees during the conference. The interpreters attend the sessions, and mainstage/keynote features with their specific participant. This is an important program that provides services that allow adoptees that would not otherwise be able to participate in the Conference and connect with the adoptee community an opportunity to learn, connect and have dialogue with others.

If you wish to sponsor a portion of the KAAN Conference, please contact Katie Bozek at katie@wearekaan.org for further details.
